

In The Name of God
Moral Charter of the Farhikhtegan'e Mosalman (Islamic Scholars) Association

Farhikhtegan'e Mosalman Association is faithful to the will of the Creator, and in order to maintain its national and organizational interests, is bound to commit itself to the following rules:

- ١- Full compliance with the laws of the Islamic Republic of Iran, especially in matters relating to the relationship with the scholars of the Islamic world.
٢. Understanding, mutual respect, cooperation and consultation with the members of the community and the intellectuals of the Islamic world whenever necessary to resolve the problems and obstacles.
٣. Establish and strengthen the communication of the association with international cultural and scientific associations and associations for the further introduction of the association to the international community and bilateral scientific and cultural cooperation.
٤. Strengthening the open space of scientific discussions and voting in a calm and balanced environment on important and sensitive social and cultural issues of the Islamic world.
٥. Extending communication with executive agencies to provide cultural, social and scientific services and attracting support.
- ٦- An attempt to publish the culture of legalism, rule of law and responsibility in the Muslim world.
٧. Creating a sincere space and mutual trust between customers and employees

